*Notice stillness, and lack of it, in others around you, and how this affects you.
Too much stilling, without sufficient mindfulness and energy, can lead to heaviness.
But lightness brings a lightness of spirit ...*

CONSIDER DĀNA

To Members and Friends:

The purpose of the Alameda Center for Buddhist Meditation (ACBM) is supporting, fostering and advancing the teachings and practices of Buddhism in North America, and especially the tradition of Samatha ("calm-concentration") meditation practice as taught by Nai Boonman Poonyathiro.

During the pandemic, our Samatha teachers and meditators joined others around the country to establish online classes and practices to continue support for all members of ACBM and the larger sangha. Many of us are grateful for that continuity when in-person opportunities were temporarily abandoned. We appreciate the convenience this provides but, we have also sought to increase our in-person gatherings this year in order to sit with noble friends in our new meditation space to practice, to learn, to otherwise gather with purpose.

ACBM is wholly supported by voluntary contributions which pay our rent and insurance. Please consider a contribution to the maintenance of ACBM so that we can continue to provide our oasis of peace and tranquility for all who come. As you likely know, Samatha teachings are given freely. Contributions to ACBM are solely used to support the practice center located in Alameda for Samatha meditation activities, events, and courses offered throughout the year.

*One-time and ongoing contributions are both warmly welcome.

Please consider making an ongoing monthly contribution if you can.
